BONUS CONCERT FOR NEW MEMBERS

Sacramento Master Singers - Songs From The Heart Sunday, May 17, 2009 - 3:00 pm

The Sacramento Master Singers is a group of choral musicians from the greater Sacramento area dedicated to the advancement of choral music. Established in 1982, the singers delight, challenge, and inspire their audiences with seasons programmed to include premieres, classics, and a wide variety of musical periods and styles. Dr. Ralph Hughes is the director of this outstanding choral group.

Rudolf Budginas - Friday, September 4, 2009 - 7:30 pm

Musical prodigy Rudolf Budginas debuted with the Lithuanian National Symphony at age nine, trained at Moscow Conservatory, and promptly rose to international fame performing solo concerts. After moving to the U.S. in 1994, he discovered his true passion: giving classical music a broader audience appeal.

Guitar Extravaganza X - Friday, November 6, 2009 - 7:30 pm

Featuring six of the finest and most exciting Latin, Flamenco and Classical guitarists, including well-known local guitarist Steve Holland, Rex Richardson, Jamey Bellizzi, Gopal Slavonic, David McLean, and Ivan Najera. Their solo's, duos, and trios highlight their individual masteries. Ecuadorian born Ivan Najera, the show's producer, promises an unforgettable night of passion and flare, with the delicate sounds of Christine Bonner's harp. A show not to be missed!

Shauna Anderson & Family - Sunday, January 24, 2010 - 3:00 pm

Sit back and relax for an evening of swing, jazz and pop, with the lovely vocal tones of Shauna Anderson, accompanied by Auburn's own Mickey Bennett on bass; Tony Kaye on guitar; Brad Hammett on Trombone; George Ballantyne on drums; and Tom Shove on the piano. Before coming together as a group some of these artists have played with such greats as Mel Torme, the Geary and Curran Theatres in San Francisco, and various concerts throughout the Bay Area, displaying their varied talents in jazz, pop, swing, and country, as well as musical theatre productions.

Presidio Brass - Wednesday, May 5, 2010 - 7:30 pm

Presidio Brass is a dynamic force in American brass chamber music. With a unique and exciting repertoire written specifically for the ensemble, this San Diego-based quintet is committed to promoting musical education for the next generation, providing engaging programs and forging lasting bonds with their audiences.

Concerts held at Placer High School, Agard & High Streets, Auburn.
